

Career Management and Transitions Program

This program is designed for adults who recognize the value of expertise and planning when they are considering career development strategies and transitions. Adults have more complex career situations, competing demands, and a wider variety of needs that shift over time.

This highly personalized program is tailored to address your situation and is for you if you:

- ✓ Are unhappy with your current work situation
- ✓ Want to be more proactive in your goal setting
- ✓ Are considering a career change
- ✓ Are thinking about going back to school
- ✓ Are at an organizational crossroads with your role
- ✓ Are getting back into the workplace after an absence
- ✓ Want to explore options for work in your later years

Our team of credentialed and experienced professionals are dedicated to helping people make decisions about their career. Self-knowledge, realistic options and an objective gap analysis support informed choices and goal setting. After years of hard work, it is SMART to take time to look to the future. We partner with you and care about your happiness and success.

About Us

We were established, and remain subsidized, by the not for profit Ball Foundation whose mission is to study aptitudes and to use that information to help people discover and develop their potential. As a research organization, we are committed to the highest professional standards and practice. To facilitate this ongoing research, we offer an optional Research Membership. A membership entitles you to additional savings on our subsidized programs and unlimited* free follow up consultations. In exchange, we ask that you complete two short surveys annually. Your information will continue to support our outcome research and studies on aptitudes and careers paths. With a rapidly changing workplace, this information will help others in the future.

 Up to 2 consultations annually*

The Career Management and Transitions Program is designed for adults who want to be proactive in managing their career and path to success and satisfaction. It is customizable to provide the most comprehensive program for your situation.
